There goes one of my best friends out the door.

Especially when I thought I had found someone who understood me.

Clarification: I am not starting an argument.

What and who are you talking about, Pluto?

I feel as if history is repeating itself. From what I know, no friends of yours would abandon you. They're my friends as well, and I feel like I know them well enough to presume this. If the person you're talking about is right on my guess...I have to request this. One, make sure you aren't overexaggerating. Second, threads like these can make it easy to patronize anyone--in this case, the friend who supposedly "went out the door".

What I meant was IRL. Things have happened on here, but I wouldn't ruin they're reputation or anything. And I'm positive you don't know the friend I meant.
